4. ACADEMIC MONITORING AND STUDENT SUPPORT
R4.1	Advisory System: There shall be one Faculty Advisor (FA) for a class. The Principal shall assign a regular faculty member with a minimum of two years of experience as the FA in discussion with the Head of the Department.
R4.2	The documents regarding all academic and non-academic matters of students shall be kept under the custody of the Faculty Advisor.
R4.3	All requests/applications from a student or parent to higher offices are to be forwarded/recommended by his/her Faculty Advisor. Students and parents shall first approach their Faculty Advisor for all kinds of advice, clarifications, and permissions on all academic matters. It is the official responsibility of the institution to provide the required guidance, clarifications, and advice to the students and parents strictly based on the prevailing academic regulations.

R4.4	The FA shall arrange separate or combined meetings with course faculty, parents, and students as and when required and discuss the academic progress of students. The Faculty Advisor shall also offer guidance and help in resolving academic and non-academic matters, including personal issues affecting the students. Advisory meetings shall preferably be convened: - Immediately after the commencement of the semester. - Immediately after announcing the marks of the first internal evaluation test. The CIE and eligibility of attendance shall be uploaded to the College portal only after being displayed on the department notice board for at least two working days. This is for the information and feedback of the students. Any concerns raised by the students regarding attendance and internal marks shall be looked into in the combined meetings of the advisor, course faculty, and the students concerned. The Principal/Head of the Department shall ensure to take steps are taken to redress the concerns raised by the students regarding internal assessment and attendance. The FA shall be the custodian of the minutes and action taken reports of the Advisory meetings. The MBA Course committee is to be in place with the Head of Department offering the MBA programme of the College as the Chairman. Other members of the Committee are: - All teachers in the Department offering the MBA programme in the College - Four student representatives nominated by the Head of Department of the College offering MBA programme. Course committee shall meet at least twice in a semester - one around the middle of the semester and one before the end of the semester. These committees should monitor the conduct of the courses, adherence to the course plan and time schedule, completion of the syllabus, standards of CIE and difficulties faced by the students, analyse the feedbacks collected from the students and take suitable remedial actions at the appropriate time. Immediately after the semester, the committee should meet without student representatives to review the CIE marks and approve them.

R4.5	The FA shall get the minutes and action taken reports of advisory meetings approved by the Head of the Department. It shall be the duty of the Head of the Department and the Principal to produce it before the College's Academic Council as and when required.
R4.6	The FA shall keep a hard copy of the consolidated statement of attendance and internal marks of their students. It shall be kept with the Head of Department without fail for all sorts of inspections.
R4.7	Regular communication with the parents of students in respect of progress in academic matters and other general issues shall be the responsibility of the Faculty Advisor.
R4.8	The Principal shall inform/forward all regulations, guidelines, communications, and announcements issued by the College regarding student academic and other matters to the Head of the Department for information and timely action.
R4.9	It shall be the official responsibility of the Principal to arrange necessary orientation programmes for the Head of the Department and Faculty regarding student counseling, the prevailing College norms, regulations, guidelines, and procedures on all academic and other College-related matters.

5.0 COURSE REGISTRATION AND ENROLMENT

R5.1	It is mandatory for students to register for the courses they want to attend in a Semester. Students have to register for all courses offered in the first semester at the time of admission.
R5.2	The dates for registration and enrolment for semesters two to four will be given in the academic calendar. Any late enrolment, allowed up to 7 working days from the commencement of the semester, will attract a late enrolment fee.
R5.3	A student will become eligible for enrolment only if he/she has registered for the previous semester. In addition, he/she has to clear all dues to the Institute up to the end of the previous semester, and also he/she should not have any pending disciplinary proceedings.
R5.4	In extraordinary circumstances, like medical grounds, a student may be permitted to withdraw from a semester completely. A student will be permitted to withdraw from the programme only for a maximum continuous period of two semesters.

6. EVALUATION PROCESS

R6.1	At the end of the semester, examination will be conducted for all courses offered in that semester and will be of three hours duration unless otherwise specified. The major eligibility criteria for the semester examination are attendance in the course and no pending disciplinary action. The minimum attendance for appearing for the semester examination is 75% in each course.
R6.2	The End Semester Examinations (ESE) shall be held twice in a year – May/June (for even semesters) and November/December (for odd semesters). However, the End Semester Examinations of all Semesters shall be conducted in both sessions.
R6.3	Candidates in each semester shall be evaluated both by Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) and End Semester Examinations (ESE). The ratio of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) to End Semester Examinations (ESE) for theory courses is 1:1.5.
R6.4	Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE): The Continuous Internal Evaluation shall be based on the day-to-day work, seminars, internal evaluation tests (minimum two in a semester), and assignments (minimum two). The course instructor (s) concerned shall carry out the Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) for the course allotted to him/her. The CIE marks for individual courses shall be computed by giving weightage to the following parameters unless otherwise specified in the curriculum. <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Course</th><th>Class Participation and Attendance</th><th>Tests</th><th>Seminar and Discussion</th><th>Assignment/ Class work</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Theory</td><td>10%</td><td>40%</td><td>25%</td><td>25%</td></tr> </tbody> </table> There shall be minimum two internal evaluation tests, each of 2 hrs. duration. Each test shall cover 50% of the syllabus and shall be for 40 marks. Students who have missed either the first or second internal test can register with the consent of faculty and the Head of the Department for a re-test which shall be conducted soon after the completion of the second test and before the end semester examination. The retest will cover entire syllabus. Duty leave shall be accounted for awarding the CIE for attendance. A systematic record for the award of internal assessment marks shall be maintained in the department signed by the faculty member concerned and countersigned by the Head of the Department.				Course	Class Participation and Attendance	Tests	Seminar and Discussion	Assignment/ Class work	Theory	10%	40%	25%	25%
Course	Class Participation and Attendance	Tests	Seminar and Discussion	Assignment/ Class work
Theory	10%	40%	25%	25%

	The CIE marks obtained by the student for all courses in a semester are to be published at least 3 days before the commencement of the End semester examinations. Anomalies, if any, shall be scrutinized by the Institution. The final CIE marks endorsed by the respective students, teachers, Faculty Advisor of the batch, and Head of the Department and Principal shall be kept in the department for scrutiny and reference.
R6.5	Students who have completed a course but could not write the End semester examination shall be awarded Absent (ab) Grade, provided they meet other eligibility criteria (R6.6). They shall register (exam registration) and appear for the End semester examination at next opportunity and earn the credits without having to register (course registration) for the course again.
R6.6	The main eligibility criteria for registering to the End Semester Examination are attendance in the course and no pending disciplinary action. The minimum attendance for appearing for the End Semester Examination is 75% in each course. Students who do not meet these eligibility criteria are awarded an FE grade.
R6.7	The students with FE grade shall register for the courses during the normal semesters in which the courses are offered. However, for the fourth semester, FE grade students can register for the courses at the next immediate chance, if offered by their College.
R6.8	A student who does not register for all the courses listed in the curriculum for a semester shall not be eligible to enroll for the next higher semester.
R6.9	Candidates for MBA programmes shall be eligible to undergo the course of study in the next semester and take the examinations of that semester, irrespective of the results of the examination of the previous semester, provided they have completed all the formalities of attendance, payment of all fees due to the College, and registration for examination in the earlier semester.
R6.10	Students registered for a course have to attend the course regularly and undergo the Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE), and appear for the End Semester Examinations (ESE). Credits for the course are deemed to be earned only on getting at least a pass grade 'P' or better in the composite evaluation.
R6.11	Pass minimum for a course shall be 40% for the End Semester Examination and 50% of CIE and ESA put together. Letter grade 'F' will be awarded to the student for a course if either his/her mark for the End Semester Examination (ESE) is below 40% or the overall mark Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) + End Semester Examination (ESE) is below 50 %.

R6.12	Students who received F grade in an End Semester Examination shall have to appear for the End Semester Examination at the next opportunity and earn the credits. They shall not be permitted to register for the course again.
R6.13	Continuous Internal Evaluation mark percentage shall not exceed 30% over the End Semester Examination mark %. CIE marks awarded to a student shall be normalized accordingly. For example if the end semester mark % is 40, then the maximum eligible CIE mark % is $40+30 = 70\%$.)
R6.14	A candidate shall be required to complete the programme within a period of four years after joining the programme.
R6.15	The maximum number of credits a student can register (course registration) for, in a semester is limited to 08 credits in excess of the total mandatory credits allotted in the curriculum for that semester.
R6.16	A student will be eligible for the award of the MBA Degree of the University on satisfying the following conditions: i. Fulfilled all the curriculum requirements within the stipulated duration of the course. ii. Earned the required minimum credits as specified in the curriculum No pending disciplinary action.
R6.17	Grading is based on the % marks obtained by the student in a course. The grade card shall only give the grades against the courses the student has registered. The semester grade card shall give the grade for each registered course, Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) for the semester, as well as Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA).

R6.18	Grade and Grade Points
	Grades	Grade Point (GP)	% of Total Marks obtained in the course
	S	10	90% and above
	A+	9.0	85% and above but less than 90%
	A	8.5	80% and above but less than 85%
	B+	8.0	75% and above but less than 80%
	B	7.5	70% and above but less than 75%
	C +	7.0	65% and above but less than 70%
	C	6.5	60% and above but less than 65%
	D	6.0	55% and above but less than 60%
	P (Pass)	5.5	50% and above but less than 55%
	F (Fail)	0	Below 50% (CIE + ESE) or Below 40% for ESE
	FE	0	Failed due to lack of eligibility criteria (R6.6)
	ab	0	Could not appear for the end semester examination but fulfills the eligibility criteria.
	Classification of MBA Degree.	First Class with Distinction	CGPA 8.0 and above
		First Class	CGPA 6.5 and above
	Equivalent percentage mark shall be = $10 * \text{CGPA} - 2.5$
R6.19	There shall be double valuation of theory papers for which end semester examinations are conducted by the College. The theory answer script shall be valued independently by the two examiners appointed by the College. If the difference between the marks awarded by the two Examiners is not more than 15% of the maximum marks of End semester Examination (ESE), the marks awarded to the candidate shall be the average of two evaluations. If the difference between the marks awarded by the two Examiners is more than 15% of the maximum marks, the Script shall be evaluated by a third Examiner. The average of the marks of the nearest two valuations shall be considered as the marks secured by the candidate. However, if one of the three marks falls exactly midway between the other two, then the highest two marks shall be taken for averaging. There is no provision for revaluation of the semester answer scripts or for improving the grade.

R6.20	Students who are in the 'failed' status on the declaration of results can apply for review. This facility will be available after obtaining the answer scripts copy, after the declaration of results. Students have to submit their review request within fifteen days of the declaration of results, in the prescribed format recommended by a competent/mapped faculty, endorsed by the head of the department routed through the principal. The fee for review will be Rs 5,000 per answer script, of which Rs 3,000 will be refunded in case of a grade change after the review. The paid amount of Rs 5,000 will be forfeited in case of no grade change after the review. The review will be carried out by a competent/mapped faculty with a minimum of three years' experience. The result of the review will be final, and no appeal will be entertained thereafter.
R6.21	Grade cards shall be made available in the student login for the registered courses, in every semester. On earning the required credits for the degree, the College will issue the consolidated grade sheet for the MBA program, including CGPA.
R6.22	Calculation of SGPA/CGPA: Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) and Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) are calculated as follows. $SGPA = \frac{\sum(C_i \times GP_i)}{\sum C_i}$, where 'C_i' is the credit assigned for a course and 'GP_i' is the grade point for that course. Summation is done for all courses specified in the curriculum of that semester. The failed and incomplete courses shall also be considered in the calculation. $CGPA = \frac{\sum(C_i \times GP_i)}{\sum C_i}$, where 'C_i' is the credit assigned for a course and 'GP_i' is the grade point for that course. Summation is done for all courses specified in the curriculum up to that semester for which the 'CGPA' is needed. Here, the failed courses shall also be accounted. CGPA for the MBA programme is arrived at by considering all course credits that are needed for the degree and their respective grade points. Equivalent percentage mark shall be = $10 * CGPA - 2.5$
R6.23	Academic Discipline and Malpractices in Examinations: Any act of violation of College directions, indiscipline, misbehavior, or unfair practice in examinations from the part of students, faculty members, staff, institution, management or any other source shall be viewed very seriously. It is the legal responsibility of the Principal and the college management to see that the examinations are conducted strictly as per the directions of the College and as specified in the examination manual. Malpractices in examinations observed or reported by an official employed by the College, faculty member, invigilator or anybody shall be immediately reported to the Principal. The Principal shall in turn conduct a preliminary enquiry giving the student concerned a chance to explain his/her case. The Principal shall then forward the case with his/her preliminary enquiry report and remarks to the Controller of Examinations along with all related documents and evidences within two working days. The Controller of examination shall decide the course of action on the issue as per the prescribed examination shall decide the course of action on the issue as per the prescribed norms in the College Examination Manual.

7. ACADEMIC AUDITING OF THE COURSE

R7.1

There shall be academic auditing of the course at stipulated intervals. The academic auditing shall be conducted jointly by an Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) within the college and external academic auditor(s) appointed by the College. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) shall oversee and monitor all the academic activities, including all internal evaluations and examinations. This cell shall prepare academic audit statements in the formats prescribed by the College for each semester at regular intervals. These reports shall be presented to the external academic auditor(s), who shall use them as a reference for independent auditing. The external auditor(s) shall submit the final audit report to the College in the prescribed format.

Academic auditing shall cover:-

1. Course delivery and adherence to the course plan, syllabus coverage, quality of question papers used for internal examinations, internal evaluation, maintenance of laboratory experimental setups and equipment, practical assignments, mini projects, and conduct of practical classes and their evaluation.
2. Co-curricular and Extracurricular activities available for students.
3. Academic functioning of the college encompasses students, faculty, and college administration, covering punctuality, attendance, discipline, academic environment, learning ecosystem, academic accountability, academic achievements, and benchmarking.
4. The audit shall also cover the quality criteria prescribed by NBA/NAAC

8.ATTENDANCE

R8.1	Students are expected to attain 100% attendance for all courses. However, under unavoidable circumstances they are permitted to avail leave. Total leave of absence shall not exceed 25% of the academic contact hours for a course and 75% attendance is mandatory for registering to the end semester examination. A 2% relaxation in attendance shall be granted to students eligible for menstrual leave, reducing the required attendance percentage to 73% to each course. On medical ground the college Principal can relax the minimum attendance requirement to 65%, to write the end semester examination. This is permitted for one or more courses registered in the semester. Principal shall keep all records which led to his decision on attendance, for verification by the Academic Auditors/ College officials. This provision is applicable only to any one semester during the entire program period. In case of prolonged illness, break of study is permitted as per R9.1. Students shall pay a fee of Rs.500(Five Hundred Only) per course to avail the attendance condonation option.
R8.2	The Principal is authorized to grant attendance relaxation (duty leave) to the students in national level competitions/championships/ tournaments representing College, when called upon to do so, up to a maximum of 10%. Such students should produce the participation certificate countersigned by the College Sports Coordinator/ the Physical Education in the case of sports activities or the Faculty Advisor in the case of other extracurricular activities within ten days of the event, as the case may be. The participation certificate thus produced shall be forwarded to the Principal with the due recommendation of the Head of the Department/. Under any circumstances, the Principal shall not consider the certificate if the overall attendance of the candidate is less than 65%. Late applications received shall not be considered on any account. The student shall get official prior permission from the College for representing the College

R8.3	The Principal is authorized to grant attendance relaxation (duty leave) to the students for organizing extra/ co-curricular activities, up to a maximum of 5%. Such students should produce the required documents countersigned by the College Sports Coordinator/ the Director of Physical Education in the case of sports activities or the Faculty Advisor in the case of other extra/ co-curricular activities within ten days of the event, as the case may be. The documents thus produced shall be forwarded to the Principal with the due recommendation of the Head of the Department. Under any circumstances, the principal shall not consider the documents if the overall attendance of the candidate is less than 65%. Late applications received shall not be considered on any account.
9. BREAK OF STUDY
R9.1	Break of study is permitted up to maximum of two semesters. But the student could extend the programme up to eight semesters, the maximum permitted by the regulation.
